WELLS COLLEGE
AURORA-ON-CAYUGA, NEW YORK
PRESIDENT'S OFFICE

March 29/18.

My dear Sir Robert,

May we have you for our Commencement Speaker this year? I am rather hazy on the date of your own Convocation but hope that it will not conflict with ours and that you have no other engagement. Our Commencement falls on June 11th and as this is the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the College we are expecting an unusual number of graduates & returns. There is usually an appropriation of $10 or so for the Commencement Speakers' honorarium. We have nothing to say as to the subject of your address for we know any thing you may choose to say would be eminently suitable.

Trusting that you can come, and Lady Falconer with you, I am

Sincerely yours
Kerr D. Macmillan.

Sir Robert Falconer
University of Toronto
Toronto, Canada.

April 2nd, 1918

President Kerr D. Macmillan,

Wells College,

Aurora-on-Cayuga, N.Y.

My dear Dr. Macmillan:

I have refused several invitations to go to the United States about the time for which you so kindly invite me, but yours comes with such an appeal from a friend and a graduate of Toronto that I feel I cannot refuse. I do not need to assure you that it would be a pleasure for me to go and see you and Mrs. Macmillan and your work in Wells College. I did hesitate a little because my plans were vague. They are now, however, a little more definite.

When should I need to leave here in order to get to your place in time ?

With kind regards to Mrs. Macmillan and yourself,

I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

President Kerr D. Macmillan,

Wells College,

Aurora-on-Cayuga, N.Y.

Dear President Macmillan:

I will endeavour to follow your instructions so as to arrive at Aurora on the evening of June 10th, though it is barely possible that I might go one day before.

My wife I am sorry will not be able to be with me. They are going up to Vermont early this year in order to get some climbing out.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

June 7th, 1918

President Kerr C. Macmillan,

Wells College.

Dear President Macmillan:

I expect to leave here on Monday, June 10th, by the 8:20 C.P.R. train, and arrive at Auburn in the afternoon at the time mentioned in your letter. I am looking forward with much pleasure to my visit to Wells College.

Yours sincerely,

President.
